CHATAUQUA.

On the hill beyond the site of the Old Ark," destroyed this winter by a heavy fall of snow breaking in the roof, is to be erected the new building for the School of Languages, which is intended to be a permanent structure, one of a series of Mr. Clarkson, of New York, was the future University buildings. It will have a frontage of 160ft., with an outlook upon the lake, and will be three stories high in the centre, with but two floors in the wings. The plans for recitation room, li brary, laboratory, music department and dormitories, are excellent. One great feature of the work of the present year will be found in the provisions for the instruction and drilling of the thousands of teachers There are only two candidates who are expected from all parts of the Union.

Dr. W. Harper of Yale, is principal of the College of Liberal Arts, and he is assisted by a large corps of able instructors. Under such a management superior advantages are afforded to all students. The season for the present year is to open July 2nd and an unequaled programme is in course of preparation. Among the prominent men who are to be present are George Cable the great Southern novelist, a very fascinating lecturer, Will Carleton, poet and reciter of his own works; Mrs. Mary Livermore, lecturer and philanthropist; Sam Jones the revivalist; the famous and irresistible We sincerely regret to have to re. Chaplain McCabe; Rcv. Fairbairn of Mansfield College, Oxford, Eng. Professor W. C. Summer of Yale; President Adams of Cornell University; Rev. Dr. J. M. Buckley, editor of the New York Christian Advocate Col. Sprague, A. P. Burbank and others. Concerts, displays of fireworks, illuminated fleet , etc., etc., are among the attractions of the season. Chatauqua's spectacular dis plays have become famous for their originality and uniqueness.
